

Fantastic pots

The Royal Horticultural Society have given two blueberry plants to all 'Open Future' schools for a competition. The primary pupils put the blueberry plants into pots which they have decorated with bright coloured mosaic tiles. The pots will be judged during the Easter Holidays and we will know the results after Easter - fingers crossed! Pupils from 'Fish' class with their pot. Designers at work
Pupils from 'Dolphins' with their pot.