

Children in Need

We had a Children in Need Assembly. We all wore hats - some posh, some funny and some old. There was a draw with names and different things for pupils to do including - hopping down the gym, signing the alphabet backwards and lots of other funny activities.