School & College Newspaper

Friday 27th January 2012 Issue no: 1088

Weather: Cold 6° and getting colder.
Remember to bring a coat, gloves, hat and scarf to school next week. Brrrrrr.

Valentines Party

On February 21st we are having our annual Valentines Party. All secondary pupils are welcome, a letter is going home to day pupils today.

Birthdays

This week, Ronnie and Oliver CP have celebrated their birthdays. They are both in 11K. It was also Mr King's Birthday (their tutor). What a coincidence! Happy Birthday to you all.

Chinese New Year

On Monday we celebrated Chinese New Year with some fantastic Chinese food at lunchtime prepared by our super Catering Staff. The Dining Room was decorated with Chinese lanterns and most of us ate our meal using chopsticks. 2012 is the year of the Dragon. Which is the animal of the year when you were born?

Cooking

On Wednesday evening some of the older girls cooked a sausage casserole. It was absolutely delicious.

Best Maths Work of the Week

Well done to Louie 8S for excellent work in every maths lesson and to Sam 9B for brilliant work on angles.

Museum visit

On Wednesday Year 9 went with Ms Simmons to visit the Booth Museum. They are learning about different skeletons. They examined a real human skeleton and also lots of different animals including the skeleton of a whole whale. All the pupils were really interested and asked lots of good questions.

Dream Bedroom Research

Last Friday, Tim, Sarah, Andrew, Rosie and Lenny went to a B & Q store to do some research about paint and wallpaper. They are designing their 'dream' bedroom. It was very interesting watching paint being mixed in a machine to make a new colour. This week they started to make models of their dream bedroom and did more research about lights.

Mock Exams

This week there have been more mock exams in DT, maths, art and MVS. The mock exams help us to practice for the real exams later in the year.

ndcs NDCS Sports Day

On Saturday LouieS went to the NDCS Sports Activity Day in Brighton. He said it was really good fun. He played football and cricket and did some running.

Housepoints

Last week:

Yellow—23 Blue—30
This week Atlanta (Y), Sam C (Y), Ali (B) and Lewis B (B) have been awarded certificates. The scores now are:
Yellow 25
Blue 32

Bike Ability

On Friday in assembly Gabby received his Bikeability Level One Award. This is a fabulous achievement—well done Gabby.

PE Performance of the Week

Izzy worked really hard on her PE revision for the GCSE mock and achieved a very pleasing result in the exam. In the gym she worked with huge effort on the rowing machine for her practical assessment. Matthew also did very well in the GCSE mock which showed how hard he had revised. He also helped the other pupils in table tennis at the sports centre for his GCSE coaching assessment. Well done both of you! Ms Mundy

Primary Poems

The Primary pupils made 'magic boxes' wrote poems about the things inside. They came up with lots of interesting ideas and used nouns and adjectives in their poems.
