London To Brighton Bike Ride

Last Sunday, I rode in the London to Brighton bike ride. I cycled with my auntie. We did well. I sped off in front a few times and waited for my auntie at the rest stops. The cycle ride took me 5 hours to finish and I got a medal. I rode up a very steep hill called Ditchling Beacon without stopping. It is 54 miles for the London to Brighton bike ride. I enjoyed it and am proud of myself! — Philip
