Well
Done!

Red Benches

A few weeks ago, the School Council noticed that some of the wooden benches in the playground were a bit worn out. Terry (maintenance) repaired them with new wood and bright red paint.

England In The Euros

Well done England for beating Ukraine 1:0. Now for the quarter final V Italy on Sunday. —
Come on England!

Birthday

On Wednesday it was Lutricia's birthday. She wore a fantastic birthday sash and looked really cool.

Tomorrow Ben R and Rheane will be celebrating their birthdays — Many happy returns to you both!

Housepoints

This week there are no housepoints so the score is still.

Blue 53 Yellow 35

Keep working hard to win points for your team!

Best Maths

Weather: It was sunny and warm but now it's raining.

Deaf Role Models

On Wednesday, 11K and FE students, Rachel, Rumel and Rajel, had a Deaf Role Model day organised by Ms Caiels (Deaf Studies) and our Speech and Language Therapists Mrs Dumbrill also joined the session.

It was a fantastic day with four deaf visitors, Ms Roanna Simmons, Mr Richard McBrayne, Mr Gavin Lilley and Mr Marcos Marchese came to HLSC to talk to us. The pupils and students were able to ask the visitors questions about their experiences of life as deaf people and their experiences at colleges/university and work; they had a lovely discussion.

The students are feeling confident and positive about their future so a big thank you to the deaf visitors for coming in — It was a brilliant day!

Thorpe Park

On Tuesday, Years 11 & 12 went on an end of year fun outing to Thorpe Park with Mrs Trabucchi, Mrs Wood, Mr King, Mrs Pulham and Mr Hatley. As you can see from these photos they had a really fun time.

Sponsored Walk/Ride

Well done to Mrs Meekums and Mrs Davey (Admin Team), who walked 13 miles all through Friday night and Saturday morning around the streets of Brighton to raise money for the Martlets Hospice appeal.

Also congratulations to Oliver C's mum who completed the London to Brighton Bike Ride on Sunday. Oliver was very proud of his mum.

War Museum

On Wednesday Ms Wakeling took all of year 9 to the Imperial war museum. They looked at helmets, grenades and old shells all from World War I. They saw a famous painting called Gassed and were able to answer lots of questions. Some of the students looked at the Holocaust exhibition and others went inside a World War I trench. Ms Wakeling said she was very proud of them all. They had remembered lots of information from their history lessons and were a pleasure to take to London.

D of E Expedition

On Wednesday, Chloe, Izzy, Rosie, Sally, Lenny, Aaron, Rian H, Lamin, Sam R, Andrew K, Liam and Pauls went with Caroline, Nick, Hayley and Samantha from Care to Blacklands Farm, in the Ashdown Forest, for their Bronze award expedition practice.
