

House Captains

On Tuesday in assembly Mr Sheppard announced the House Captains for this year. Blue House — Beth and Harry.

Yellow House — Sally and Rian

They each have a badge to wear either yellow or blue. There will be a house meeting soon and different competitions.

PE Star Of The Week

PE Superstar this week is Jake. He worked so hard on his GCSE circuit on Thursday and it was really hot in the gym. He did 50 sit ups in 1minute 30secs and beat his targets in all the other exercises too... Well done Jake you have set a high standard for yourself next week!

Table Tennis Badges

Well done to Harry Carter and Matthew Fox for achieving their table tennis badges. In the PE assessment last term they both achieved 9/10 from the GCSE moderator which is an outstanding achievement. — Ms Mundy

After school a group of girls went to a shop in Brighton called Cloud 9.

they made fantastic cupcakes and delicious ice cream. They brought some back for everybody to enjoy.

Lost Property

This week, lots of clothes, shoes and bags etc, were put out for us to claim and collect. Please make sure everything you bring into school has your name written somewhere on it, otherwise it can easily be lost.

Art Of The Week

Well done to Pauls who made a fantastic abstract 3D clay sculpture of the human eye. — Mr Kent

A Large Insect?

I spotted this large, green insect outside the art room last week and wondered if anyone could identify it.

Birthdays

This week, Louie S celebrated his 13th birthday. Congratulations!

Red Line

There is now a red line across part of the playground. All of the playground is for calmer play but over the red line is for a quiet area.

Beach

All the girls went to Ovingdean beach on Thursday evening, for a picnic and rock pooling. It was lovely in the sunshine.

House Certificates

Last week the score was Blue 0 Yellow 2

This week, Rosie got a point for Blue and Atlanta and Paighton got points for Yellow

Blue 1 Yellow 4

New Minibus

On Wednesday, our new school minibus was presented to the school. The School Council attended a special ceremony to receive the bus. Thank you to the Variety Club and the Co-operative Society for their help. The bus is a lovely blue colour and bigger than the old bus, which we had had for a long time.

Harvest

Please can we all remember to bring in packets of biscuits, tea and coffee for our harvest collection. We are helping elderly deaf people this year, who meet at Brighton Deaf Club. Thank you so much for those things brought in this week. — Don't forget — Please help!

Police Boxes

8C have been learning about the police. They have made some great board games to show what happens if you break the law.

Their games are in room 6... come and see them!

Spitfire T9

On Thursday at breaktime, when the staff were enjoying a cup of tea in the sun, a World War II aeroplane, called a Spitfire T9, flew across the sky doing spectacular stunts. It was really exciting to watch!

Photos

Paper proofs of the pupil photographs taken last week are coming home today with an order form.

Hot, Hot, Hot

The weather this week has gone back to summer. The temperature has shot up to over 25C. It should be about 17C at this time of year. Enjoy it whilst it's here.

Best Maths

Well done to Rosie for her brilliant work on adding and Joe (9B) for excellent problem solving. — Ms Barnett
