Friday 14th September 2012 Issue no: 1109 — Est. 1982 (29 years ago)

Weather: Mostly sunny with a little rain.

School Council

The new School Council met on Wednesday. They are Izzy, Sarah, Ben B, Beth B, Sam, Georga Rose, Louis D, Curtis, Milan and Morgan M. They had an election and voted for Georga as Chairperson and Sam as Vice Chairperson. Meetings will be in Mr Sheppard's room every Wednesday at 8:55pm.

Famous Drummer

Dave Rowntree from the band Blur (who have sold 24 million records!) came to the school this week and played drums for us in front of BBC TV who filmed it. He was really impressed by Georga, Oliver and Louie who also played drums. He launched plans to improve the school and college.

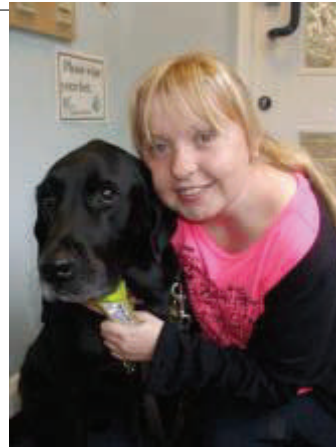

Look at our website to find out more and watch BBC Southeast tonight at 6.20.

Zeb

A special welcome to Zeb who belongs to Kelly and is her Guide Dog. Zeb is a 6 year old Labrador and he has been trained by the Royal National Institute for the Blind. Kelly explained to us that we must not stroke him when he is working and we must not give him biscuits or any other bits of food.

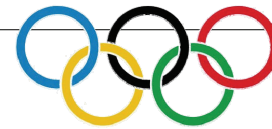

Zeb will live with Kelly and the other FE students in Ovingdean House.

Head Of Care

HLSC welcomes Simon Rogers who is our new Head of Care. Simon has previously worked at Ovingdean School for Deaf Children and more recently at St Mary's School in Bexhill. Simon said, "I am really pleased and excited to be at HLSC— I have enjoyed meeting you all this week."

London 2012

The Olympics and Paralympics were fantastic. Some of us went to London to watch some of the competitions. Ms Barnett was a volunteer steward and had a wonderful time meeting people from all around the world.

FE

We now have 23 students in FE. The courses they are doing are, General Building Maintenance, Vocational Studies, Animal Care, Creative Media, Hair and Beauty and Motor Vehicle Maintenance.

Andy Murray

Congratulations to Andy Murray who won the US Open Tennis Grand Slam. It is the first time a British tennis player has won a Grand Slam in 76 years!!

Gold Expedition

Congratulations to Amy and Teah who successfully completed their Gold Expedition in Cavennes in the South of France during the summer. They went with some other students from Brighton — A fantastic achievement!!

Welcome

A big welcome to Beth, Catherine, Lucy and Raveena who have all joined HLSC. We wish them lots of happiness and much success.
