

Beach Cinema

On Wednesday evening the girls went to the Beach Cinema. They watched a film called Catching Fire, which is the sequel to The Hunger Games.

Mosaic Art

Year 8 have made some fantastic mosaic tiles inspired by the work of artist, Eduardo Paolozzi. Paolozzi created the mosaic art at Tottenham Court Road Underground station in London.

BATOD

Last week, the British Association of Teachers of the Deaf held a meeting at Hamilton Lodge. Mrs Barnet and Mr Dunlin gave a presentation about the great Maths work we do here at HLSC.

Changes

This week we said goodbye to Mr Hilder who has been the Business Manager for 12 years. He has done a fantastic job and he has now moved to work in a different school. We are very pleased to announce that Mr Burgess, who is currently our Marketing and Projects Manager, has been appointed as our new Business Manager.

On Top Of The World

Congratulations to Paighton, Joe, George, Oliver, James, Joe, Amy and Peter and staff Mitra, Darren, Simon and Susannah.

On Tuesday they all climbed to the top of Mount Snowdon. They have been staying in North Wales for a week of outdoor adventures and have also been Rock Climbing, Kayaking and Rock Jumping. Many thanks to the staff from Plumpton College for all their help and support.

Colour Run

On Saturday, Louis ran with his Dad in the SONUS (Deaf Charity) run. He ran 6km and along the way had paint thrown at him. At the end Louis looked like a rainbow but he was still smiling.

Riding

On Thursday, Lucy, David and Beth achieved their Level 1 Riding Certificate. Now they are working towards Level 2.

House Prize

The winner this week is Oakley.

Shadows & Light

This week Year 8 went on a Science trip to Brighton Museum and Art Gallery.

They learnt all about the history of Shadow puppets. They made their own puppets and then performed a play behind a white screen.

All the plays were really funny!

Car Design

On Monday lunchtime Oakley made this super simple cool car. He used the steps, Domino bricks and plastic boards.

Housepoints

The score last week was
Blue 25 Yellow 20

This week, Patrick got a point for Yellow.

Well done!

Blue 25 Yellow 21

BSL Exam

This week there were some BSL exams - well done to those pupils and staff who took them. Fingers crossed that they all pass. There will be more exams next week.

Know Your Eggs

Great work by Lutricia and Rachel. They are learning about eggs and had to make a Swiss roll that was very light. "It was better than mine" said Mrs Trabucchi.

Visit

10W visited David Lloyds Sports Centre to have a look round and find out about different classes and activities on offer.

World Cup

Who will win the World Cup?

Mr Sheppard still thinks it will be Belgium, Ben thinks Brazil and Louis Holland (3x runners up).

Which is your favourite team?
