

Rainbow

9D and Sam (Deaf Studies) saw a beautiful rainbow through the classroom window.

Hedgehog Home

Oliver (FE) is studying Animal Care Level at Plumpton College. For his new project he has to plan a new hedgehog home. Oliver has been searching for suitable cardboard boxes to use.

Whose Hands?

Look at these hands. Can you guess who they belong to?

Housepoints

Last term the score was
Blue 6 Yellow 5.

This week, Oliver got a point for Blue and Ayeshaa, Gabriel and Catherine got points for Yellow. Well done!

Happy New Year 2015

In assembly, Mrs Grant talked about New Year's resolutions. A resolution is something you decide to do or aim to do in 2015, like being more tidy, eating more healthily or just trying something different.

Lots of us had good ideas for our resolutions... Here are a few:

Mrs Grant — Exercise more often.
George — Get a distinction at college.
Catherine — Work hard in lessons.
Ben — Go to the gym and get fit.

Sally — Eat more healthily.

Mr Kent — Play more football with the Brighton Deaf Team.

Alice — Slow down my signing speed.

Mr Couch — Ride my shiny new bike and don't just look at it!

Whatever you decide to do — most importantly, work hard and be helpful and kind to each other.

Derby 2015

Excitement is building as plans are being made for the annual Deaf 5 a side football competition in Derby. Mr Bird (Head Coach) said, "We are getting ready for the competition and training has begun. We will be entering one Boys team and one Girls team. Come on HLSC... we are the reigning boys champions!" Ms Mundy is also going to Derby this year.

For Christmas I got...

We hope you all had lovely break and that Santa gave you something special to enjoy.

Mr Inman is very pleased with his Mighty Mug. It has a sucker on its base and can't be knocked over accidentally. Lewis loves his DVDs, Mrs Trabucchi had a 'Melted Snowman' (Twiglets, carrots, Chocolate Buttons and a bottle of water), ho, ho. Mrs Grant got zoom, macro and fish eye lenses for her iPhone.

Freedom of Expression

Mrs Grant talked about the right of freedom of expression in assembly today. She talked about different countries who do not have the same rights and what happens to people who disagree with the views of those governments. We looked at China and Russia and what happens to people who disagree with their governments. We can protest to show that we disagree with our government but not all countries allow this to happen. We also talked about the people who were killed in Paris for expressing their views.

Street Dance

On Tuesday evening a lady called Katie came to give a Street Dance lesson. Katie is a brilliant dance teacher and a Level 2 signer. Girls and boys from School and FE danced their socks off in the gym and others came to watch. Katie taught a sequence of dance moves to the class and helped everyone polish up their skills. Lutricia and Morgan were very excited to show off their new dance moves to Mrs Peacock on Wednesday morning. Morgan and Ben said, "I love it!", Ayesha said, "It's good, I like the teacher."

Street Dance classes will be happening in the gym every Wednesday evening, so come along and 'bop til you drop'.

Debate

In FE the students had a debate about Ebola. They discussed whether British doctors and nurses should go to Africa to help. They decided that they should go to help but return on RAF aeroplanes to stop spreading the virus.

Art

Some of the girls at 34 did some colourful artwork on canvas for their rooms.

Cooking Together

On Wednesday evening, Andrew, Peter and Lenny made tasty Prawn Vietnamese Summer Rolls; they loved them. Here is a picture of Lenny enjoying his hard work.
