Harvest Food

Last week, Mrs Barnet delivered HLSC's Harvest Festival food collection to the Purple Kitchen, a food bank at Portslade Town Hall.

The Purple kitchen is run by volunteers. They were very pleased with the donation as they feed about 100 people every week.

Climbing

At climbing club this week Ben challenged himself. He found the hardest way he could to complete his climb!

Andrew Aims High

Andrew M was telling Mrs Grant about his clay pigeon shooting. He goes every month and has passed his level 1 & 2 qualification. Andrew said, "I really enjoy it. It is good fun and my aim is improving all the time."

Old Hamiltonians

Mr Couch attended the annual Old Hamiltonians celebration at the Waterfront Hotel in Brighton. The Old Hamiltonians are ex-pupils, some of them were at HLSC many years ago. As the new Principal of HLSC, the Hamiltonians presented Mr Couch with a crocheted cushion featuring the famous school logo and a cheque. He was also given a signed, framed picture of Deaf Laurel & Hardy, who provided entertainment at the event.

Behaviour Assembly

In Assembly on Wednesday the school council did some drama about good and bad behaviour and being kind towards one another. The school council did a great job showing different ideas.

Sussex Deaf Cricket

The Sussex Deaf Cricket are very happy because they got their official team kit on at Thursday practice. Here is a picture of a few of the players wearing their new kit and looking very proud.

It's a winner!

FE Georga

Georga is studying Nails & Beauty at City College. Here is a picture of some cool fingernail designs she has created this week, using varnish and transfers.

Good work Georga, they look amazing!

FE Rosie

Last Thursday Rosie went to MacDonal'd's. Rosie ordered herself a hot chocolate and a chocolate donut. Rosie carefully put away her change and receipt before sitting down and tucking in.

3 Mile Running

On Tuesday evening, Oliver, David and Kai went for a fitness run. They ran from the school to the Palace Pier and then along the Seafront before heading back up to HLSC.

They ran about 3 miles... and still had time for a Selfie on the way.

Well done, boys!

Bobs

Today Natasha, Kai and Mr King realised that Bob and Bob have the same name!

Christmas Cakes

Lots of lovely Christmas gifts have been made in Cookery this week - yule logs, cake toppers, gingerbread houses and Christmas cakes. The winners of the Christmas cake competition were Oliver and Esmee. Well done!

Housepoints

Last week the score was
Blue 13 Yellow 10

This week, John, Ayeshaa, Callum and Jasper got points for Yellow.
