

FE Leah

Leah used photoshop to add layers to her photograph showing the pier at different times of the day. She said it took her 4 hours and lots of patience to stay on the beach to take the photos!

Poetry Day

Thursday was National Poetry Day. In assembly Mrs Pulham explained that schools across the country were thinking about poems. We looked at some poems in the work we are doing at the moment, such as Shakespeare's writing in The Merchant of Venice where he uses rhyme (words that sound and look similar). We watched BSL translation of a poem called The Rainy Day by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Hamilton Lodge

School & College Newspaper

Friday 9th October 2015 Issue no: 1230 — Est. 1981 (34 years ago)

Weather: Plenty of sunshine this weekend.

www.hamiltonlsc.co.uk

Pizza Restaurant

A group of FE students decided to go out for a pizza this week. They agreed on a restaurant to eat in and ordered their meals independently.

They all had an enjoyable evening together and the food was delicious, too!

It was delicious!

Food Exams

Year 11 have been involved in their practical cookery exams this week. I am so impressed with their work - it has been fantastic. Mrs T

Rising Dough

Jasper made some bread in cookery this week. He was amazed at how much the dough had grown.

Harvest Festival

Please bring in tins of food for our harvest festival. Give your donations to reception.

Thank you.

1st Class Delivery

Sarah, Rosie, Lennie and Sophie wrote letters to different staff. They went to the Post Office to buy stamps and learn about the postal system.

Painting

Sarah and Rosie have been relaxing by painting canvases and colouring this week. Naomi

Housepoints

Last week the score was
Blue 3 Yellow 5

This week, Alice got a point for Blue and Amina got a point for Yellow. Well done.

Blue 4 Yellow 6

Minibus Theory

On Wednesday, Maria (Care) and Mr Inman (Computing) went on a new minibus driving theory course. Mr Inman said, "I like driving... the course was very interesting."

FE Curtis

Last September I started a new course, sports level one. I've had the chance to meet new friends, new teachers and working with a CSW. I've really enjoyed all the practical lessons we do where we learn new skills.

Work Experience

Rachel is doing work experience every Friday with Mrs Trabucchi in Cookery. Rachel is an ex HLSC pupil and student. Rachel has done a professional catering course and is also doing ICT at City college Brighton.

Welcome back!

Curry Night Out

Oliver , Patrick, David, Scott, Kai went out to Noor's for an Indian meal on Wednesday night, they loved it .

Drama

In Assembly today, Year 11 did some wonderful mimed performances. In Drama lessons with Mr Kent they have been developing their mime skills to describe a short scene. Mr Kent said, "Year 11 have been thinking about body language and facial expression and how important they both are in good drama."

