Aladdin is a Christmas Hit!

On Tuesday and Wednesday we performed our Christmas play, Aladdin. We were a little bit nervous on the opening night but Team HLSC did a brilliant. On Wednesday morning we did a special performance for some local schools... Our final performance was on Wednesday evening, to an enthusiastic crowd.

Mr Kent and Mrs Pulhum (Artistic Directors) said, "It's been amazing... well done to all at HLSC for making it happen.

Thank you to everyone who supported us!

The Fingerspeller

Gabby went to see Snow White panto in London... He met a deaf actor called Stephen Collins. Stephen is known for his character, Sonny Fingerspeller in the brilliant BSL Zone series The Fingerspellers. Gabby got Stephen's autograph.

Ice-Skating

On Thursday evening lots of pupils went ice-skating at the Royal Pavilion. Hot chocolate topped with marshmallows after. Yum!

Hello, Goodbye

Welcome to Mr Taylor, our new Business Manager. He is very excited to be joining HLSC.

Thanks you to Mr Burgess, who has been part of HLSC for 19 years. He has worked very hard looking after the school and is now taking a well earned break.

I was overwhelmed by this performance. It was the best production of Aladdin I have seen.

Sensory Needs

Here is a picture of Percy, Tayah and Tymal testing possible equipment for the new sensory room.

Well Done!

Visitor

On Tuesday, ex-student, Lenny, came to visit us. He stayed for lunch and had a good chat with all his old friends in FE. Thanks for coming Lenny, it was lovely to see you.

Jorgi Wood

Here is a picture of Jorgi. She is Mrs Wood's (FE) new puppy. Jorgi is having an early Christmas snooze. What do you think Jorgi is dreaming about?

College Cooking

Louis made a very large chocolate covered Christmas biscuit at college. Yum!

Jennifer

I passed my assessment on Monday. I had Hobnob the horse on Tuesday. I had to get him ready for 'trot up'.

Hobnob's a really good boy, he really knows what to do!!!! He opened his mouth for the bit (which is part of his bridle) and let it go in.— Jennifer (FE)

Mrs Grant said, "well done to Jennifer she loves her equine studies course."
